

TEACHER TO TEACHER RESOURCE: JOURNALS

1. Provide each student with a blank notebook
2. Students write in a reflective manner
3. Schedule a regular time for writing in the journal
4. Collect a small portion of the journals each day
5. Provide feedback on the journal entries
6. Students can also share and provide feedback to one another

Examples of ways to use journals:

Literature response

Dialogue (student -teacher or student -student)

Math or science (describe a process)
